About the Seattle All-Star Classic

Since its founding in 2021, the Seattle All-Star Classic (SASC) has grown into one of the region's most anticipated summer traditions—a star-studded, family-friendly celebration built around a celebrity softball game and home run derby at Tacoma's historic Cheney Stadium. On Saturday, July 11, 2026, the event returns, this time hosted by Seattle Super Bowl Champions Uchenna Nwosu, Rashid Shaheed, and friends.

The Seattle All-Star Classic's purpose is to uplift the region, giving back to the community, and spotlighting nonprofits doing extraordinary work in the South Sound - raising awareness, generating funding, and promoting community support.

What makes the Classic truly special is the people who step onto the field. Nearly every celebrity guest has a meaningful connection to Seattle or Washington State. Their participation reflects a shared pride in where they come from and a desire to give back to the communities that shaped them.

Baden | Official Ball

With innovation as its driving factor, Baden asked, "How do we make the game better for the player?" Baden's first major innovation in sports was creating the women's sized basketball, becoming the first athletic ball manufacturer to produce the women's ball, adopted by the NCAA in 1984. Since this achievement, Baden has innovated countless technologies for basketball, volleyball, soccer, football, baseball, and softball, including Axe baseball and softball bats, a line of ergonomic bats, which are changing the face of the game.

MEET OUR HOSTS

Uchenna Nwosu

Uchenna Nwosu has been a pillar of Seattle's defense since arriving here in 2022. He's been not only a key piece on the edge that has led Seattle's defensive dominance, but key veteran-leader of it as well.

Nwosu capped off the defining moment of Seattle's season in the Super Bowl with his pick-six interception for a touchdown.

Rashid Shaheed

Rashid Shaheed was a key piece of Seattle's Super Bowl run. After being acquired by Seattle midway through the 2025 season, Shaheed made an explosive impact and was a game-changer, returning three kicks for touchdowns, including the momentum-shifting return versus the Rams and the game-opening return versus the 49ers in the playoffs.

Throughout the rest of his career, Shaheed is a former First-Team All-Pro and 2x Pro-Bowler.
